Chairman's Notes.

3. The London Plan is going through its inquiry now. Peter Eversden has been representing Local Amenity Societies LBH is attempting to introduce Opportunity Area Status into the GWR/Brentford Area to support their local plan proposals to further increase densities.
4. Although the inspector has been appointed and he has started his pre-inquiry process no date has been given for the initial meeting nor any indication of which topics raised by objectors (including BCC) will be aired.
5. Council Residents meeting (normally with Aled Richards) was taken by Theo Dennison who is clearly aware of anger that Council officers are not open with local residents or with members.
6. Gunnersbury and BCC have asked to present evidence at PLI in support of Council refusal. The Council intends to defend their policies on: Standard of residential accommodation, design/bulk/mass/materials, Transport/parking/slip road, planning obligations
8. Brentford Chamber set to hold open meeting on Town Centre application before it goes to Planning in November.
9. Residential Moorings. Draft response attached.
