Chairman's Notes.

- 3. Michael Ginn, Architect, will present his second application (now for 9 large units) if it is not determined before our meeting. The first was withdrawn after SOGA and BCC and others objected. SOGA letter on this revised application and BCC 461 which refers to it on the website.
- 4. This presentation is by John Assael architect for a reduced and partly modified scheme following the rejection at appeal of the first. I attach the summary of the views the BCC put to the inquiry (ALB015 on website).
- 5. Representatives from Isis may be able to attend. They have now appointed Urbed and Swedish Master Planners as initial consultants after receiving the Survey of historic buildings commissioned from Paul Velluet, which will follow.
- 6. I am still waiting for the Ballymore minute of our visit on site with them in early June.
- 7. LBH expect to application to go to SDC on Aug 3. Likely that if outstanding issues (S 106 and Affordable housing are resolved the officer may recommend approval. Peter Hughes, President/Chamber of Com asked for letters with views on latest design. BCC obs on website.
- 8. I have asked for notes on Gunnersbury which may be available. Richard Gill hopes to come at the end of our meeting.
- 9. LBH have a long vacant post to address this problem.
- 10. I am still trying to clarify new procedure for applications on line with LBH. Draft letter on website for comment.
- 11. Local Applications presented by Matthew Rockel.
- 12. New Plans for London Mayors consultation. Letter on website for information.
- 14. I have asked Hazel Dakers to look into suitable dates for 2009/10.
